

PRIVACY POLICY

Welcome to the privacy policy which spells out how the International Child Art Foundation uses your personal information when you visit the website www.ILoveSoccer.io.

1. We will never sell, rent, distribute, or make public your personal information.
2. We will contact you directly only if we have something meaningful and relevant to share with you.

Cookies. Like most websites, ours uses cookies. A cookie is a small data file stored on your computer or device that holds information about your prior use of a particular website. We do not store personally identifiable information in the cookies that we create. We also use cookies to gather information — again, aggregated, not individual — on how visitors use the site. For instance, cookies help us understand which pages users visit most often and whether users are receiving error messages from certain pages. Cookies provide the sort of information that helps us improve the site and make it more useful and relevant. You can set your browser to refuse cookies, delete them, or warn you each time a cookie is being sent. Go to the Help menu on your browser.

Site visitation tracking. Like most websites, ours uses a tool called Google Analytics to track and better understand in the aggregate our users' interactions with the site. Google Analytics collects technical data about visitors to our site, including geographic location, device, internet browser, and operating system. However, none of this information identifies you personally to us. Google Analytics records your IP address when you browse our site, but Google Analytics does not give that information to us. We use the anonymous aggregate data from Google Analytics to understand how visitors find the site, how many people visit the site, and which pages visitors spend time on and which they ignore. This information helps us improve the design and content of the website.

Your legal rights

If the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) applies to you because you are in the European Union, you have certain rights concerning your personal data, including:

- The right to be informed by us about how we use your personal data (that's what we're doing now with this privacy policy);
- The right of access — you can request a copy of the personal data we hold about you;
- The right to rectification — you can make us correct personal data about you that is incomplete or inaccurate;
- The right to erasure — you can ask us to delete the personal data we have about you.
